Please note:

The hosting club is responsible for all local promotion. Flyinggiants.com will provide a strong web presence with dedicated individual event ad banners in rotation on Flyinggiants.com as well as a Leading Edge Story a week or so before the event date. Our most successful tour stops have been a product of the hosting club's relentless promotional efforts. The club members must be committed to putting in the time and elbow grease. The more promotion your club does the better the attendance will be!
